NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.
(NKKKKK)

A source advised that on May 22, 1960, the National Grand Council of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan met at Atlanta, Georgia, to discuss consolidation of the Klan's unity of effort and activities to establish a National Fund, and a National Secretary, and to design a new flag. The meeting was attended by representatives of the Federation of Ku Klux Klan, Alabama; Association of Arkansas Klans, Arkansas; Florida Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Southern Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Association of Georgia Klans, Georgia; Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, North Carolina; Association of South Carolina Klans, South Carolina; Dixie Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Tennessee; and Kyksos Klan, Texas.

This source advised that at a consolidation meeting at Atlanta, Georgia, September 2-5, 1960, at which the North Carolina and Texas Klans were not represented, it was resolved and passed that their name be changed to National Ku Klux Klan.

[redacted] source advised in March, 1964, that several meetings of Klan groups were held during the period 1960 to 1963 in an effort to unite the Klan groups under a single leadership.

The organization was granted a charter in DeKalb County, Georgia, November 1, 1963, under the name National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order."

[redacted] source advised in December, 1963, that the organization had issued a statement of its program which indicated the organization to be anti-negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

[redacted] source advised in July, 1968, that the organization has its headquarters in Tucker, Georgia, and the day-to-day operations are under the direction of James R. Venable, Imperial Wizard.

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE
KU KLUX KLAN, INC. (NKKKK)

A characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) appears in the appendix section of this memorandum.

A source of known reliability advised May 16, 1969, that [redacted] representing herself as a member of the NKKKK, applied for a Dallas city permit to hold a meeting of the NKKKK at Ferris Plaza in the downtown area of Dallas, Texas, May 18, 1969.

Detective [redacted] Criminal Intelligence Unit, Dallas Police Department, advised May 16, 1969, that a Dallas city permit was issued to the NKKKK for a public meeting at Ferris Plaza, Dallas, Texas, May 18, 1969, at 2:00 P.M. Detective [redacted] indicated restrictions on the permit provided that conduct was to be orderly, no public address system was to be used, and that no seats were to be erected in the park. The permit stated that the purpose of the meeting was to inform the public of the nature of the organization.

[redacted] Police, Inspectional Services Bureau, Dallas Police Department, advised May 19, 1969, that the meeting was opened at 2:45 P.M. at Ferris Plaza, Dallas, [redacted] also known as [redacted] who represented herself as a [redacted] of the NKKKK and wore the [redacted] [redacted] then introduced the self-proclaimed [redacted] [redacted] for the State of Texas of the NKKKK [redacted] [redacted] who made his short speech indicating the NKKKK was for law and order and change through the ballot, urging whites to stand up and be counted in the fight against black encroachment on white liberty. [redacted] also appealed to the crowd to apply for membership in the NKKKK.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

[redacted] estimated that about 75 persons attended this meeting and could be described as 10 to 20 members or sympathizers of the NKKKK and about 55 curious onlookers including law enforcement and local press personnel.

[redacted] advised that following the formal speech, seven or eight long-haired youths crowded around [redacted] questioning her about her views and criticizing the plan. [redacted] became irritated with this group and started handing out printed cards which made the bearers "honorary niggers". Among these youths the following were identified:

[redacted]
[redacted] of Notes From the Underground, formerly known as the Dallas Notes, a paper publishing New Left and SDS views off the Southern Methodist University campus, Dallas, Texas (a characterization of SDS appears in the Appendix hereof.

[redacted]
[redacted] who was identified as a reporter for Notes From the Underground.

Chief [redacted] indicated that the following associates of the former American Nazi Party, once active in Dallas, (a characterization of the American Nazi Party appears in the Appendix section of this memorandum), were recognized in the crowd:

[redacted]
[redacted] who wore an all black uniform with a red Nazi swastika on his left arm;
[redacted]
[redacted] appeared dressed in a black uniform, wearing a red Nazi swastika on his left arm. [redacted] described as a white male, born [redacted] Oklahoma, who resides at [redacted] Irving, Texas, had been arrested for throwing red paint during an anti-ballistic missile rally at Fearis Plaza on April 27, 1969.

[redacted]

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

[redacted] confidential source of known reliability advised May 19, 1969, that [redacted] said at the meeting that there was no local charter of the NKKKK in Dallas and that the meeting was organized to determine the amount of interest in this organization in the Dallas area. The source advised that [redacted]

[redacted] who was a former member of the ANP in Dallas, were interested in seeing former members of the ANP in the crowd because they held the same political opinions as they did in the NKKKK but were not interested in joining with the ANP because of the militancy and obvious flaunting of the Nazi uniforms as displayed.

[redacted] advised that there were no arrests, injuries, property damage, incidents, or confrontations as a result of this meeting, which dispersed quietly at about 4:00 P.M., May 18, 1969.

The following agencies were notified of the contents of this memorandum, May 16, 18, 1969:

U.S. Attorney, Dallas, Texas;
U.S. Secret Service, Dallas, Texas;
Naval Investigative Service Office, Dallas, Texas;
Office of Special Investigations, Dallas, Texas;
112th Military Intelligence Group, Dallas, Texas.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam, and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anticommunist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of July 24, 1968, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY,
Also Known As The American Nazi Party,
American Nazis, The World Union Of Free Enterprise National Socialists, The
George Lincoln Rockwell Party

On May 29, 1968, a source advised that the American Nazi Party - World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS) was organized by George Lincoln Rockwell at Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1956. It was based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement, as espoused by the German Nazi Party, which was headed by Adolf Hitler. The ANP - WUFENS supports and follows the line of hatred against Negroes, Jews, and Communists, through speeches, published literature, demonstrations, and publicity-seeking devices for the purpose of seeking a legitimate dominant political party within the United States and in foreign countries.

"The Richmond News Leader" issue dated April 4, 1963, published daily at Richmond, Virginia, stated that this organization is chartered in the State of Virginia as "The George Lincoln Rockwell Party" and that the Virginia Assembly prohibits the use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia-chartered organization. As of January 1, 1967, the official name of this organization was changed to "National Socialist White People's Party," according to Commander Rockwell.

On August 25, 1967, George Lincoln Rockwell was assassinated in Arlington, Virginia, near the ANP Headquarters Building. The August 28, 1967, issue of the "Northern Virginia Sun," a daily newspaper published at Arlington, Virginia, stated that [REDACTED] took command of the Party after Rockwell's assassination.

MICHIGAN REALM, NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
Bureau File 157-168
Detroit File 157-1116

On January 22, 1968, a source advised that the Michigan Realm, National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, was formed and commenced activity in Michigan during 1968. On May 12, 1969, this source advised that the Michigan Realm has no headquarters as such and until recently met bi-monthly at Watkins Coffee Shop, 19100 Joy Road, Detroit, Michigan; however, now utilizes homes of members for meetings. According to source, the Michigan Realm uses Post Office Box 5387, Dearborn, Michigan, 48128, as a mailing address.

Source advised that there are no State Officers of the Michigan REalm and that [redacted] of the only existing unit, is the highest ranking officer in Michigan.

Source advised on May 12, 1969, that the Michigan REalm, National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, continues to receive instruction and guidance from the National Office of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Tucker, Georgia, which is headed by Imperial Wizard JAMES VENABLE. However, according to source, there has recently been some friction between the Michigan Realm and the National Office and the Michigan Realm has become dissatisfied with VENABLE's leadership.

Source further advised that in January, 1969, a decision was made by the Michigan Realm to continue to operate as the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, but to operate independent of the National Office.

(C) NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
OF OHIO, INC., (NKKKK)

On October 8, 1964, [redacted] Clerk,
Secretary of State's Office, Columbus, State of Ohio, advised public records from this office indicate a charter was granted the NKKK of Ohio on October 5, 1964, by the State of Ohio. The charter was filed under Certificate Number 10194, and the Corporation Number is 334111.

The purpose of the corporation is to operate as a realm organization within the State of Ohio and in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., Atlanta, Georgia. Second, to promote patriotism toward the civil government, honorable peace among men and nations, love among ourselves, liberty, justice and patriotic association for the mutual benefit of all mankind.

On October 23, 1964, [redacted]
[redacted] State House, Secretary of State's Office, State of Ohio, advised that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Ohio, Inc.'s charter granted October 5, 1964, was revoked
October 22, 1964, for the official reason that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan organization was on the U. S.
Attorney General's subversive list. [redacted] said the actual purpose for revocation of the charter was not because the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is on the U. S. Attorney General's subversive list but because it was felt the existence of a state granted charter would encourage the Klan to make the claim it was "state sanctioned" and therefore entirely legitimate.

In actuality, the Ku Klux Klan and not the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan has been designated by the U.S.
Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On May 6, 1969, a confidential source of the Cincinnati FBI Office advised that the above Klan organization is practically non-existent in the southern area of Ohio. This source pointed out that [redacted] still holds his title as [redacted] however, this title currently is in name only since [redacted] has almost completely discontinued his association with the NKKKK.

Characterizations of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK), the American Nazi Party (ANP), and the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) appear in the appendix of this memorandum.

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

A source of known reliability advised on June 6, 1969, that [redacted] representing the NKKKK, applied for a Dallas City Permit to hold a rally of that organization at Ferris Plaza in the downtown area, Dallas, Texas, on June 8, 1969.

Detective [redacted] Intelligence Unit, Dallas Police Department, advised on June 6, 1969, that a Dallas City Permit was issued for a meeting of the NKKKK at Ferris Plaza, Dallas, for June 8, 1969, providing no public address system or seats would be used and that the meeting would be held in an orderly manner. The purpose of the meeting was stated to inform the public of the nature of the NKKKK.

Lieutenant [redacted] Intelligence Unit, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, advised on June 8, 1969, that the NKKKK held a meeting at Ferris Plaza, Dallas, pursuant to the above permit from 2:45 PM to 5:00 PM, June 8, 1969. There were approximately ten NKKKK sympathizers present including [redacted] the NKKKK for the State of Texas, who gave short speeches.

[redacted] opened the rally with prayer and gave a short history of the NKKKK, the reasons for its founding, and stated the Klan was needed to return the country to law and order.

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.

[] spoke on the NKKKK's respect for law and order and its support for the local police department. Neville stated that the NKKKK was against "dirty hippies" and the "Left Wing" element.

Lieutenant [] advised that there were about 40 onlookers and bystanders present at Ferris Plaza during the meeting. Among the bystanders were the following associates of the former ANP once active in Dallas:

Lieutenant [] advised that []

[] was also observed watching the above meeting but not participating or attempting to counterdemonstrate. Lieutenant [] described [] as being a former student at the University of Texas at Arlington, Arlington, Texas, and a sympathizer of the SDS, and interested in the Student Workers Union.

Lieutenant [] furnished the following brochures and illustrations distributed by []
[] at this Klan meeting:

If You Believe That White, Native-Born Protestant Americans

—should have the same rights in their own country that are granted to alien and other groups, then your place is with the movement that is organized to cherish, establish, and maintain these rights for Americans. Other groups are actively operative in furthering their own peculiar group interests. The Jews are organized to protect Jewish interests; the Roman Catholics are organized to further papal interests, the Negroes are organized to advance the interests of that race; and in various parts of America, various racial and alien-national groups are organized for the furtherance of their particular interests and the spread of their peculiar ideals among our own American people. These racial and religious groups exercise the rights of freedom of assembly, free speech, and free press. The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan believes that White, Native-born, Protestant Americans should be protected in their own exercise of these fundamental American rights, and especially in their right to insist that America shall be made American through the promulgation of American principles, the dissemination of American ideals, the creation of wholesome American sentiment, the preservation of American institutions, and through all of those means that will make for a nobler, purer, and more prosperous America.

Organization Is Necessary for the Accomplishment of Great Tasks

—Individual efforts count for very little when family, human, and national rights and interests are at stake. The need is for organization, well-planned, well-organized, well-directed, and effectively operative. Such an organization is the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

If You Can Qualify for Membership

—The interests of your home, your fellows, your community, your state, your church, and your nation, should impel you at once to seek admission to the ranks of men of kindred race, thoughts, purposes and ideals, so that you may have your part in the great crusade for God, Home, and Country, in which they are engaged.

Why

You Should Become A Klansman
BECAUSE

If You Are a White Man

—Your place is with an organized White Man's movement dedicated to the task of preserving the integrity, the blood-purity, the traditions, the ideals, and the heritages of the White Races in America. This is the Racial Mission of the Klan.

If You Are a Native-Born American

—Your place is with an organized White, Native-born American movement dedicated to all the high and holy ideals and principles of real American patriotism. In its influences and its teachings, and its principles, the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan seeks to generate and impart a spirit of loyalty to America, of consecration to her ideals, of fealty to her institutions, of support to her government, of obedience to her laws, and of unselfish devotion to her interests.

If You Are a Protestant

—Your place is with an organized White, Native-born American Protestant movement dedicated to the re-animation of genuine Protestantism in America. As it grows, the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is quietly but effectively aiding in the up-building of Protestant Christianity.

If You Believe in Practical Christianity

—Your place is with an organized movement that believes, not only in an open Bible, in the fullest religious liberty, in the personality and power of Jesus Christ, but also in the full Christ program of unselfish, sacrificing helpfulness carried on, not with blare of trumpet or the noise of clanging cymbals, but "in secret" as commanded by the one Master of men, Jesus Christ.

If You Believe in Law and Order

—Your place is with an organized movement that is effectively creating respect for Law, emphasizing obedience to Law, and insisting upon the full and impartial enforcement of Law, in every place where it is fully operative. The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is dedicated to this principle.

If You Believe in Good Citizenship

—Your place is with an organized movement dedicated to the task of developing a high order of citizenship. The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is seeking to create appreciation of the responsibilities, privileges and duties of American citizenship.

If You Believe in the American Public School System

—Your place is with an organized movement that is dedicated to the principle that the American Public School System must and shall be preserved, supported, and developed for the highest possible functioning in our American life.

If You Believe in the American Home

—as fundamental to all that is best in life, in society, in Church, and in the nation, your place is with an organized movement dedicated to the preservation of the American Home.

If You Believe in Real Fraternity

—You will find it in an organized movement that is seeking to engender a real, vital, and enduring fellowship among men who enjoy a kinship of race, belief, spirit, character, and purpose.

AMERICA for AMERICANS

Is there a native born American whose heart does not swell with pride as he gazes upon this wonderful land that gave him birth?

Is there one, who being a son of this great land of Liberty, could owe allegiance to a foreign nation, when in his country there is peace and prosperity, where every man is equal, where his home is safe, where his children have every sort of educational advantages, where he can worship if he wants to and how he wants to, where he can enjoy life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness?

Who is the native born American whose blood does not quicken at the sight of the starry banner that prompted Francis Scott Key to write his immortal lines? Who would not give his life that this Flag which waved from Bunker Hill, from Perry's flagship, from Morro Castle and at St. Mihiel may still float supreme? Yet there are those who for a mess of pottage would sell their birthright and see this flag torn from these sockets and trampled. The Knights of The Ku Klux Klan respect other flags but bow to none but Old Glory and pledge themselves to see that it shall always float supreme, conscious of the fact that devotion to Deity, to obey and uphold the law and Constitution of our country is necessary.

No people should be as proud of their heritage, their traditions and forebears as America's Native Sons; Why? Because in their veins runs the Courage of the Pilgrims, the Bravery of Boone, the Wisdom of Washington, Sagacity of Franklin, the Nobility of Lincoln and Lee. Surely the blood of kings and potentates could be no more royal — no lineage more noble. The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan desire that this blood be not polluted, but kept pure as a sacred heritage and thereby forge on to the front and take its place at the pinnacle of all nations of the world, where purity, Christianity, peace and prosperity reign supreme. This is one of the ultimate desires of the Knights of The Ku Klux Klan.

We now are the most envied of all nations. We are looked upon as a Utopia by the poor, oppressed and discontented of other lands, and to Amercia they come and suck from her bosom her riches and at the same time maintain allegiance to their own nation. America has become more and more a melting pot, and her native born in many section are being pushed into the background by the flood of foreigners, most of who maintain allegiance to a foreign flag.

The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan do not feel that it was for these that our forefathers overthrew foreign oppression in 1776, but feel that they suffered in the ice and snow of Valley Forge that we, her native born, might secure political independence, social security, happiness and improvement and progress in our every effort.

The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan do not feel that it was for these that our fathers welded a union of states into a great and glorious Amercia, with their blood in 1861. When was there a war that could compare with this? No struggle has ever excelled this in fierceness, or equal it in percentage of loss, yet none was more marked by that absence of cruelty toward the vanquished which characterized the termination of our Civil War. "Brethren of ours are these men," exclaimed the union commander, when the incomparable remnant of Lee's army surrounded by ten times their number, grounded their arms, and not a salvo of rejoicing was fired. The soldiers of Grant made haste to open their haversacks and uncork their flasks to revive and sustain the starving heroes of the South.

Compare this with the slaughter of the aristocracy of France after their revolution, the massacre of the Poles by Russia after their attempted rebellions and the bloody assizes in England.

The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan know that it was for us, their descendants, native born Americans, that our noble sires worked, struggled and fought, and it is and always will be the earnest endeavor of the Knight of the Ku Klux Klan to preserve this great Nation for its native born through Christ Jesus our Criterion of Character.

The native born American is the salt of the earth — and the ranks of the Ku Klux Klan are open only to men born in the United States.

There should be a revival of the true American spirit that made our country great and it is the aim and ambition of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan to play a leading part in the building up of this spirit — not only in its own Legions, but among the whole American people.

The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan stand for "America First" — first in thought, first in affection, and first in the Galaxy of Nations.

The spirit of Americanism as set up by our forefathers must be preserved and cherished and kept forever alive by the burning intensity of patriotism and Christian manhood. To preserve this spirit in all its purity, integrity and perfection, The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan provide a rallying point, a guiding hand and a single aim for all true Americans.

THE KU KLUX KREED

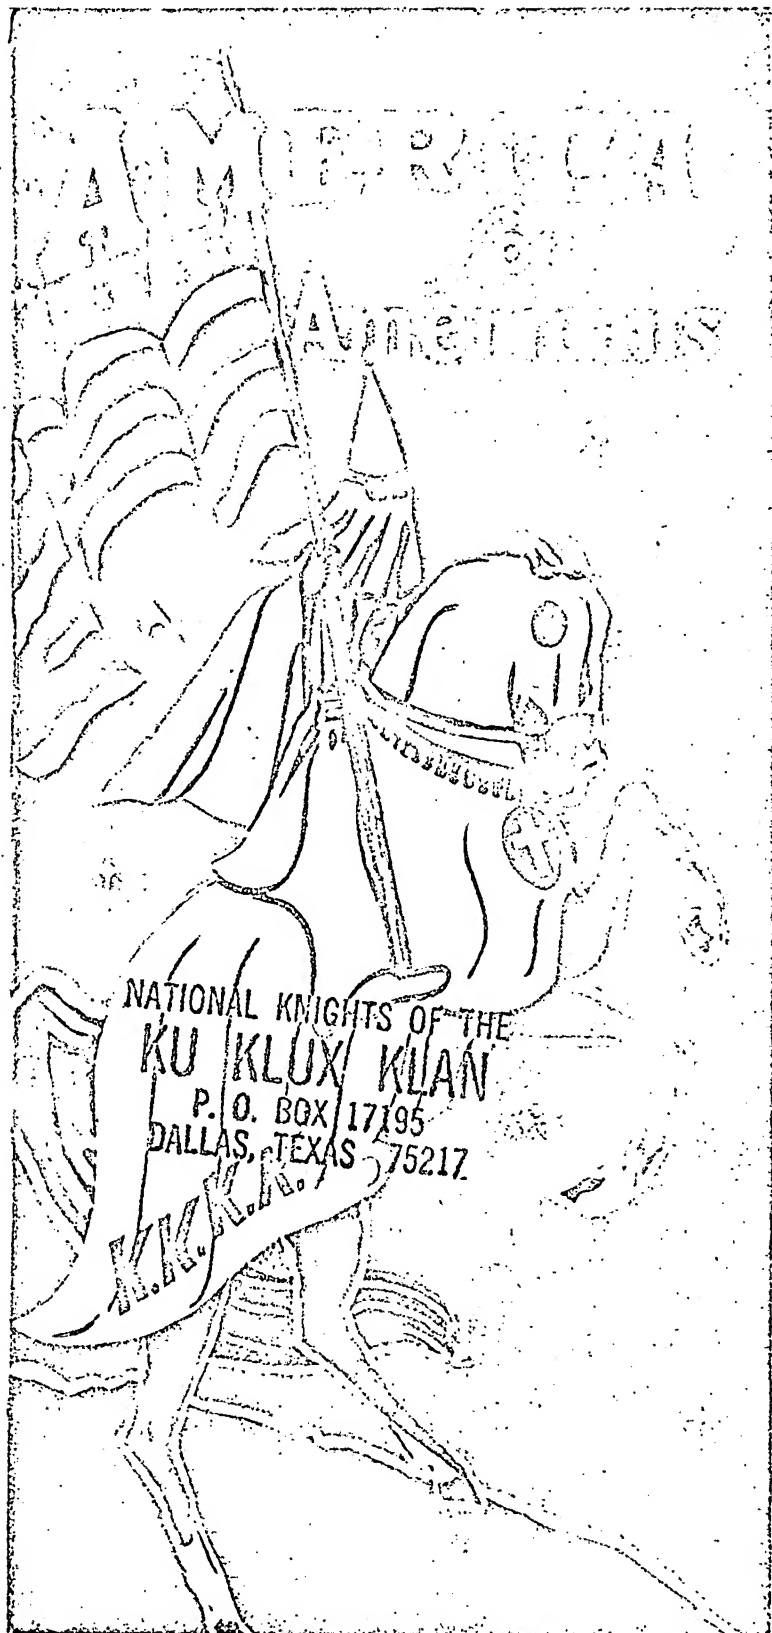

We, THE ORDER of the Knight of the Ku Klux Klan, reverentially acknowledges the majesty and supremacy of the Divine Being, and recognize the goodness and providence of the same.

WE RECOGNIZE our relation to the Government of the United States of America, the Supremacy of its Constitution, the Union of States thereunder, and the Constitutional Laws thereof, and we shall be ever devoted to the sublime principles of a pure Americanism and valiant in the defense of its ideals and institutions.

WE AVOW THE distinction between the races of mankind as same has been decreed by the Creator, and shall ever be true in the faithful maintenance of White Supremacy and will strenuously oppose any compromise thereof in any and all things.

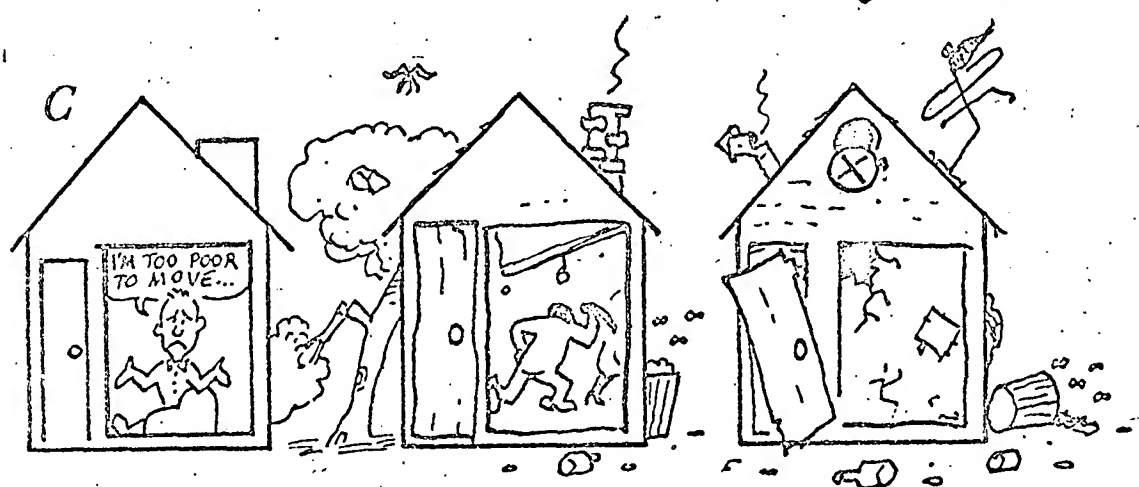

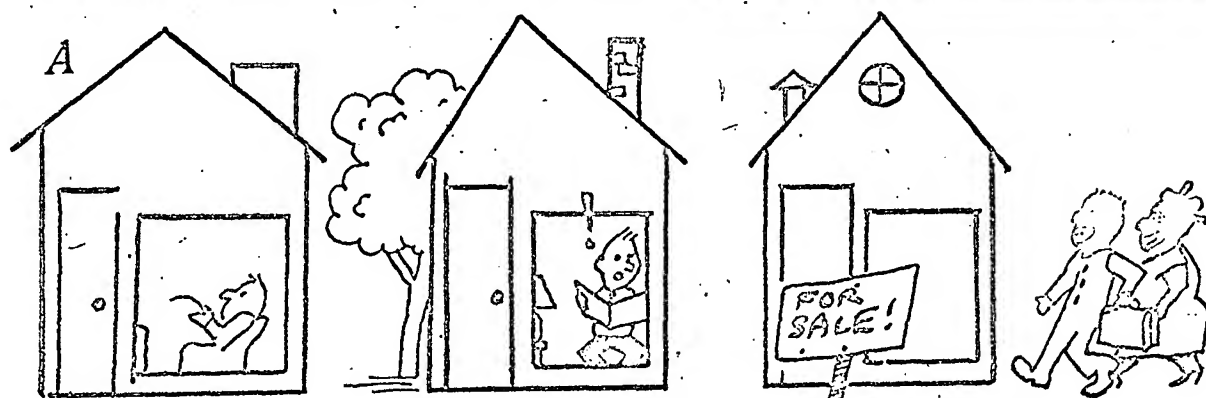

WE APPRECIATE the intrinsic value of a real practical fraternal relationship among men of kindred thought; purpose and ideals and the infinite benefits accruable therefrom, and shall faithfully devote ourselves to the practice of an honorable Klanishness that the life and living of each day be a constant blessing to others.

THIS IS NOT A FAIRY TALE

Once upon a time the black slaves were sold by their chiefs to WHITE ship Captains as the beginning of this race-mixing filth in America. Black savages were unfit for any association with people outside their own kind. White's began teaching them cleanliness, how to wear clothes and shoes, trades, sanitary habits, the Bible and many others. This improved them to some extent, education helped, improved living standards taught them WHITE civilization. Their native odor and jungle habits remained and exist in them today. Mistakes were made by both races; this began a shameful off-spring called, "HALF-BREED," the cartoon above is drawn so you can easily understand the point.

After all these years up to 1964 millions of efforts, ideas, laws, prayers, news media, and word of mouth have not been able to solve this un-Godly act. The thousands of arrests, demonstrations, sit-in's, stand-up's, fighting, killing and rock throwing will never settle our problem.

For any WHITE person to mix, marry, or associate with any color but his own is prideless insanity. They could be restored back to their own native land by the simple means of transportation. caf.

NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY (NSRP)

On November 26, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in the November 26, 1957, issue of the "Greenville Piedmont," a newspaper of Greenville, South Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party, to be known as the United White Party." According to the article, the party was formed at a recently held meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, at which many klansmen were represented. The UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals."

The July, 1958, issue of "The Thunderbolt," self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party" (NSRP), reported that rank and file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party," with national offices at Post Office Box 261, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

In November, 1958, a source advised that the NSRP is composed of past members of Klan-type organizations and notorious anti-Semites.

NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS (NSRP)

A source advised on February 8, 1966, that the Chicago branch of the NSRP was located at the NSRP National Bookshop at 2237 North Western Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. The Chicago branch of the NSRP was officially opened on December 29, 1965, when Dr. EDWARD R. FIELDS, National Director of the NSRP, spoke at a rally held at 2237 North Western Avenue, Chicago.

The above source also advised that the National Office of the NSRP is located at Augusta, Georgia, and the Chicago branch of the NSRP subscribes to the policies of the National Office. The Chicago branch of the NSRP believes there should not be race mixing between whites and Negroes and that Negroes in the United States by conducting demonstrations and causing riots are causing a breakdown of law and order in the United States. The NSRP believes that the Jews and Negroes should be exposed in their attempts to have integration between whites and Negroes.

[REDACTED] source advised on January 17, 1967, the Chicago branch of the NSRP was bankrupt and unable to pay rent for premises at 2237 North Western Avenue, Chicago. This source advised on March 3, 1967, the Chicago branch NSRP vacated the premises at 2237 North Western Avenue and ceased to function as an organization on March 1, 1967. On March 1, 1967, according to source, members agreed to remain in contact with each other until such time as they could reorganize NSRP at Chicago.

On May 28, 1968, the [REDACTED] source advised the NSRP does not have a headquarters at Chicago; however, members have maintained contact with each other and plan to reactivate the group if civil rights demonstrations commence in Chicago.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX
KLAN, INC. (NKKKK)-CHICAGO

In December, 1967, a source advised that [redacted] Chicago, Illinois, was Illinois Grand Dragon for NKKKK. This source stated [redacted] had indicated he was attempting to organize a NKKKK branch at Chicago, which would subscribe to the purposes and objectives of the national organization of the NKKKK.

In early January, 1968, [redacted] source advised [redacted] NKKKK, and [redacted] Chicago, were NKKKK leaders at Chicago.

[redacted] source also stated in early January, 1968, that [redacted] Chicago police officers, along with six other Chicago police officers, were suspended by the Chicago Police Department on December 28, 1967, because of their association with NKKKK activities in Chicago.

[redacted] source advised in April, 1968, that [redacted] had moved from Chicago and all activity of the NKKKK at Chicago had ceased with his departure.

[redacted] source and [redacted] source advised in May, 1968, that NKKKK activities at Chicago were non-existent. These sources [redacted] indicated [redacted] attempt to recruit members into the NKKKK at Chicago prior to his departure from the city was futile.

On May 26, 1968, the above [redacted] sources and [redacted] source advised NKKKK does not have an organization at Chicago, Illinois, or anywhere in Illinois. All sources indicated belief attempts would again be made to organize a NKKKK branch at Chicago in the future.

"MINUTEMEN"

The "Minutemen" was organized in June, 1960. Its present headquarters are Norborne, Missouri. [redacted] Norborne, Missouri, has been publicly identified as the [redacted] of the organization since its inception. Membership of the "Minutemen" is claimed by [redacted] to be in excess of 35,000 members, however, confidential sources state this figure is greatly exaggerated and that a more true estimate would be between 500 and 1,000 members. Statements by [redacted] and literature distributed by the organization indicate its purpose to be the resistance to and exposure of, the spread of Communist influence within the United States; for the formation of a guerrilla or underground organization to combat the troops of any foreign powers which might eventually occupy this country; and resist passage of laws which would regulate private ownership of firearms.

In April, 1966, [redacted] stated the "Minutemen" organization was then dividing itself into two bodies; one group to be members who have been able to maintain their identity in complete secrecy from the public and government investigative agencies, and the other group to be made up of members who have been publicly identified and who will become active in the Patriotic Party. National conventions of the Patriotic Party were held in July, 1966, at Kansas City, Missouri, and July, 1967, at Kansas City, Kansas.

Members of the "Minutemen" organization, including [redacted] and his close associate, [redacted] have been arrested in the past on charges of violation of the Federal Firearms Act, Bank Robbery - Conspiracy, Illegal Possession of Firearms and Conspiracy to Commit Arson. They have also engaged in maneuvers utilizing guerrilla tactics wherein machine guns, mortars, grenades, and other firearms were employed.

MINUTEMEN (CHICAGO, ILLINOIS AREA)

In June, 1968, a source advised that in early 1968 a Chicago unit of the Minutemen organization was formed as a small secret group within the Ticonderoga Gun Club in Chicago, Illinois. This unit appeared to follow the aims and purposes of the national Minutemen organization, and maintains correspondence with the national headquarters. The group holds meetings, has engaged in several training sessions, primarily concerning survival, and is attempting to develop a program of activities.

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (UKA)

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, reflect that this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute and United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races.

[redacted] source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. (The organization is directed by [redacted] and is the dominant Klan group in the South, with units in several southern states.)

[redacted] source advised that at a meeting in Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, the U.S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

[redacted] source advised on May 25, 1967, that the UKA is currently an active organization, with Klaverns in several states. This source said that [redacted]

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 8-30-88 BY SP8 JCF/AT

A characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., (NKKKK) appears in the appendix section of this memorandum.

A confidential source of known reliability, who is in a position to know some information concerning the NKKKK, furnished the following information during November, 1969.

Membership

The source indicated that Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, James Venable, made a statement that the NKKKK had a national membership of about 500 members. The source indicated that it was felt this was an exaggerated figure espoused by Venable in a braggadocio manner and that there were probably fewer members than 500 although there may have been as many as 500 on the mailing list of the NKKKK in the past.

Finances

Source advised that James Venable was interested in filing a correct Federal income tax return and showing all revenue as received from members of the NKKKK in order to protect the Klan from adverse publicity and undue Federal investigation. Concerning current expenses, Venable said it cost him out of his pocket $4,000 to seat and house the members attending the Stone Mountain, Georgia convention in August, 1969, and that he, Venable, had spent in excess of $19,000 in personal funds traveling about the country to make speeches in behalf of the NKKKK.

Publication

James Venable does not have the finances at the present time to continue the NKKKK publications, but he is interested and would be anxious to buy a press if he could find someone who he felt he could depend on to publish a new NKKKK publication.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

157-168-970

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.

Organization

Source indicated that there was no organization in any of the states throughout the United States and that the strongest contingent of the NKKKK was in a 40-mile radius of Atlanta, Georgia. James Venable stated that he did not have a sufficient administrative organization to answer mail and handle inquiries concerning the NKKKK as a result of Venable's speech making activities over the country.

Policy

The source indicated that James Venable was adhering to a policy which would involve no demonstrations, public cross burnings or open meetings in Klan robes. James Venable is stressing two-man teams which is the power of the vote and the economic boycott. The policy of the NKKKK would be to economically boycott businesses and firms operated by Negroes and Jews. The NKKKK should build a strong army of members throughout the country to quietly influence the vote. Venable envisioned that guns and firearms at the present time would "lead to jail" and that he wants his members not to violate the law.

Recruitment

The source advised that James Venable has a growing need for organizers and ideally would like to have four good organizers in each state of the national but does not presently believe that there are enough persons who support Klan beliefs to get the leadership in each state he desired. Nationally, the NKKKK needed four to six leaders who believed as Venable, but who he does not have. The overall plan for the NKKKK was limited to the building of membership of Christian Americans who were not violence prone on activities, but who would support the NKKKK financially and believed in the power of the vote to oppress the Negro community. James Venable thought that recruiting of this nature was easier in small, rural communities than it was in large urban areas.

Synopsis

National Headquarters of the NKKKK is located in Tucker, Georgia. Imperial Wizard JAMES R. LIVENABLE, Atlanta, Ga., attorney, is the only active National Officer of the NKKKK. Georgia State Headquarters of the NKKKK recently established in Lamar County, Ga., and a Grand Dragon for the State has been appointed. Most active NKKKK Klavern is in Barnesville (Lamar County), Ga., and its members described as "a wild bunch." Activities of members of this klavern set forth, especially their interest in weapons and their interest in areas where racial trouble occurs. In such an area, they helped set up a new, active NKKKK Klavern in Zebulon (Pike County), Ga. The only other NKKKK activities reported outside of Georgia are those in the Dallas, Texas, area, as set forth.

AT 157-60

A characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (NKKKK) is included in the Appendix Section of this report.

I. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

A. Headquarters

Headquarters of the NKKKK is located in the Carl Garmon Building, 4107 Lawrenceville Highway, Tucker, Georgia. Meetings are seldom held in the headquarters, and sometimes long periods of time go by without the mail even being picked up at this address.

[redacted] 2/9/70)

B. Charter Information

At a meeting of the NKKKK held in Tucker, Georgia, on September 6, 1964, [redacted] of the NKKKK announced that he had incorporated the NKKKK and that it was being operated as a separate Klan, the same as the other Klans having membership in the National group.

([redacted] 9/16/64)

The NKKKK was granted a charter in DeKalb County, Georgia, on November 1, 1963, under the name of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (NKKKK).

There has been no change in the charter status of the NKKKK.

([redacted] 2/9/70)

C. Objectives

The NKKKK was chartered as a patriotic, secret, social and benovolent order.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

AT 157-60

In December, 1963, the NKKKK issued a statement of its program which indicated the organization to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic and anti-foreign born.

([] 12/63)

The objectives of the NKKKK have not changed since the organization was formed.

([] 2/9/70)

JAMES R. VENABLE is adhering to a policy which would involve no demonstrations, public cross burnings or open meetings in Klan robes. The policy of the NKKKK would be to boycott economically businesses and firms operated by Negroes and Jews. VENABLE believed that guns and firearms at the present time would only lead to jail and he wanted his members not to violate the law.

([] 11/69)

D. National Officers

CT The NKKKK has two National officers. JAMES R. VENABLE, an Atlanta attorney who is Imperial Wizard, [] who heads [] of the NKKKK. [] however, has been quite ill recently and has been inactive as far as Klan matters are concerned.

([] 2/9/70)

E. Activities of National Organization

There are no national organization activities of the NKKKK except for the activities which JAMES R. VENABLE does on his own, such as traveling about the country to make speeches. The only other activity which could be considered an activity of the national organization is the annual rally and cross burning held on the Labor Day weekend each year on the property of JAMES R. VENABLE in Stone Mountain, Georgia.

On Saturday, August 30, 1969, NKKKK held their national rally and cross burning on the property of JAMES R. VENABLE in Stone Mountain, Georgia. The rally had not been advertised and very few klansmen knew that it would take place. The crowd was small and was estimated at less than 100 people. A cross about 20 feet tall was burned. The main speakers were JAMES R. VENABLE [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

([REDACTED] 9/3/69)

The annual meeting of the NKKKK was held on JAMES R. VENABLE's property, Stone Mountain, Georgia, on August 30, 1969. Although a number of States had representatives at the meeting, it was the poorest showing of all the NKKKK rallies. There probably would have been a larger crowd, but VENABLE had forgotten about the meeting and did not have everything prepared as he should have. The rally seemed to be a last-minute throw-together.

([REDACTED] 10/3/69)

The annual NKKKK rally was held at Stone Mountain, Georgia, during the Labor Day weekend, August 30-31, 1969. The rally attracted approximately 100 people, and was considered a failure since about 4,000 persons were expected to attend. JAMES R. VENABLE was the featured speaker and presided over the cross burning. Only about eighteen or twenty klansmen wearing robes marched around the cross burning ceremony. There was supposed to have been a business meeting on the following Sunday morning, August 31, 1969, but it had to be canceled because VENABLE became ill and was unable to attend.

([REDACTED] 10/21/69)

AT 157-60

II. FINANCES

The NKKKK has no bank account. JAMES R. VENABLE personally finances the operation of the national offices of the NKKKK. He has wasted much of his own money financing various operations and activities of the NKKKK.

([] 2/9/70)

JAMES R. VENABLE was interested in filing a correct Federal income tax return to show all revenue he had received from members of the NKKKK in order to protect the Klan from adverse publicity and undue Federal investigation. Concerning current expenses, VENABLE stated that it cost him, out of his pocket, $4,000.00 to put on the NKKKK rally at Stone Mountain, Georgia, in August, 1969. VENABLE also stated that he had spent over $19,000.00 in personal funds traveling about the country to make speeches on behalf of the NKKKK.

([] 11/69)

AT 157-60

III. PUBLICATIONS AND PROPAGANDA

The NKKKK has been putting out no publications or other forms of propaganda, but JAMES R. VENABLE does talk of writing a book about the Klan.

([] 2/9/70)

JAMES R. VENABLE at the present time does not have the finances to continue NKKKK publications, but he would be interested in buying a press if he could find someone whom he felt he could depend upon to publish a new NKKKK publication.

([] 11/69)

AT 157-60

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

There is no NKKKK organization in any of the States throughout the United States, and the strongest contingent of the NKKKK is in a forty-mile radius of Atlanta, Georgia. JAMES R. VENABLE has stated that he does not have a sufficient administrative organization to answer mail and handle inquiries concerning the NKKKK as VENABLE is usually traveling about the country making speeches.

Although JAMES R. VENABLE makes a claim of having a national NKKKK membership of about 500 members, this was believed to be an exaggerated figure. Although the NKKKK may have had as many as 500 on its mailing list in the past, it is believed that there are fewer than 500 members now.

JAMES R. VENABLE would like to have several good organizers in each State, but he does not believe that there are enough persons who support Klan beliefs to get the leadership in each State at the present time. VENABLE's plan for the NKKKK was limited to the building of a membership of Christian Americans who are not violence prone, but who would support the NKKKK financially and who believe in the power of the vote to control the Negro community. VENABLE believed that recruiting along these lines would be easier in small rural communities than in the large urban areas.

II. KLAVERNS OR LOCAL CHAPTERS

A. Name and Location of Units

Tucker, Georgia

The NKKKK Unit that meets in Tucker, Georgia, has not had a meeting in several months.

([] 6/19/69)

The unit of the NKKKK that used to meet in Tucker, Georgia, probably had no more than five members and they have not been meeting for quite some time.

([] 2/9/70)

Barnesville (Lamar County), Georgia

The Barnesville Klavern, NKKKK, is an extremely active unit which holds meetings just about every week in Barnesville, Georgia, unless the Klavern is engaged in some other activities elsewhere. During the period January 12, 1969, to December 19, 1969, the Barnesville Klavern held at least 25 regular meetings, in addition to other activities on the part of members of this Klavern, such as helping to set up new Klaverns in Zebulon, Georgia, and Sandersville, Georgia, where there were racial troubles.

([] 2/13/69 to 1/12/70)

Zebulon (Pike County), Georgia

The Zebulon Klavern, NKKKK, was formed as a result of racial trouble in Pike County in the Spring of 1969. Members of the Barnesville Klavern took part in this racial trouble and helped to set up the Zebulon Klavern. During the period June 16, 1969, to December 14, 1969, the Zebulon

C. Activities of Klaverns

The members of the Barnesville Klavern, NKKKK, are "a wild bunch" and they can be depended upon to show up at places where there is racial trouble.

([] 2/9/70)

At a meeting of the Barnesville Klavern, NKKKK, held on January 19, 1969, a new member of the unit stated that he had a case of dynamite which he would be glad to donate to the unit. The man said that he also had a case of hand grenades which he could give to the unit. [] of the unit, told the new man to hold onto this stuff so that the unit would know where to get it if they ever wanted it. At this meeting, [] also asked the other members what they thought of the idea of going to Sylvester, Georgia, to try to straighten out the racial trouble in that area. [] suggested two of the members of the Barnesville Klavern had stated that they wanted some action.

([] 2/13/69)

At a meeting of the Barnesville Unit, NKKKK, held on February 2, 1969, two of the members believed that they had heard someone in the woods outside of the Klavern and the members came out and fired their guns at something that ran through the woods.

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

([] 2/13/69)

At a meeting of the Barnesville Klavern held on February 9, 1969, [] stated that he had learned that a man had reported into the hospital in Forsyth, Georgia, on February 2, 1969, with a gunshot wound. [] stated that it was probably the person the Klavern members had fired at when they heard someone running through the woods during their meeting on February 2, 1969.

Also at the meeting held on February 9, 1969, a visiting klansman told the Klavern that he and his friends had twenty machine guns registered and could knock out all police communications in the Alabama city where his Klavern was located. This visiting klansman and [redacted] of the Barnesville Klavern, were planning to go to Crawfordville, Georgia, to get back their guns which had been confiscated by the police when they got in trouble over two years previously during racial troubles in the Crawfordville area.

([redacted] 2/13/69)

At a meeting of the Barnesville Klavern held on April 26, 1969, [redacted] stated that this meeting was being held to discuss current racial problems in Zebulon, Georgia. [redacted] stated that he had had a call from someone in Zebulon who wanted the Barnesville members to come to the Pirate's Cove Cafe in Zebulon in order to keep an eye on the situation. [redacted] stated that he and another member of the Klavern would look the situation over to see if guns could be put somewhere in Zebulon so that they would not have to go get the guns in Barnesville if they were needed.

([redacted] 6/18/69)

At a meeting of the Barnesville Klavern on April 27, 1969, there was a discussion about having the members go to Zebulon in their black shirts. The matter was discussed and it was decided that all they would have to do was just stand around in Zebulon in their black shirts, and without having to do anything else they would be serving the purpose of the Klan.

([redacted] 5/12/69)

At a meeting of the Barnesville Klavern, NKKKK, held on April 28, 1969, arrangements were made for some of the members to stay at the Pirate's Cove Cafe, Zebulon, Georgia, day and night in order to guard the cafe from being damaged by the Negroes who were causing problems in Zebulon. Guns were taken to the cafe on April 28, 1969, and members stayed at the cafe day and night until around May 12, 1969.

([redacted] 6/18/69)

AT 157-60

On April 28, 1969, weapons were brought to the Pirate's Cove Cafe in Zebulon, Georgia. Among the weapons there were .45 caliber semi-automatic rifles, semi-automatic shotguns, .30 caliber carbine, five or six pistols and some clubs. It was agreed, however, by the Barnesville Klavern members and the owner of the cafe who had called them to Zebulon that nothing would be done in regard to the racial problem in Zebulon unless the Pirate's Cove Cafe was attacked by the Negroes.

In a series of articles on Georgia's private schools, the Atlanta Journal, a newspaper of general circulation, had an article on page 1 of the Home Edition which had been written by JUNIE BROWN, Atlanta Journal Education Editor. Portions of the article are as follows:

GEORGIA'S PRIVATE SCHOOLS--NO. 4

Gun Barrels and Bibles

By JUNIE BROWN

Atlanta Journal Education Editor

"Naw, I'm not talking to any Atlanta reporters," John Mitchell drawled. "If you was from some other paper it might be different."

The .38 revolver strapped on his left hip provided all the punctuation his refusal needed.

Mitchell, stocky, unshaven, wearing gray workclothes, is one of the founders of the Holy Bible Church School located in the woods of Lamar County near Barnesville, several miles from the nearest paved road.

Some nine to 16 children from kindergarten through the 12th grade depend on the school for their education.

There is one teacher.

Mitchell said he has hired a second.

THE SCHOOL is a small, cement-block building, approximately 30-by-50 feet, on the edge of a swamp in a wooded, rocky area.

It has no running water, no rest rooms, no waste disposal, no fire protection, no first-aid facilities, no drinking fountain (a bucket and dipper provide water for the school).

In addition the lighting is inadequate and the grounds are rough and uncleared. Only recently has a heating system been added to the four-year-old school.

One end of the building is an assembly room containing the flags and accouterments normally associated with a Ku Klux Klan meeting hall.

The rest of the building is devoted to four small unfinished classrooms with almost no furnishings and two larger open spaces still littered with blocks, boards and other construction equipment.

The building also is used as a church, according to Mitchell.

THE HOLY BIBLE Church, Inc., and whatever accompanying educational activities take place in the building hold a charter from the state, issued on a signed court order from Lamar County Superior Court Judge Hugh D. Sosebee.

"The school has a charter from the state, which makes it legal to send children there. There is no legal way I can keep these children in the public school," said Lamar County Superintendent of schools Charles C. Morgan Jr. when asked why he doesn't make the Holy Bible Church School children comply with Georgia's compulsory school attendance law.

Georgia has no law regulating private schools in any way. But the state does have a compulsory attendance law and requires private schools to report their enrollment to the county school system each fall as a means of assuring that all children are in school.

The Holy Bible School has never complied with this law.

When Butts County visiting teacher, Mrs. Kathleen Pinckney, went to the school in the fall of 1936 to get the enrollment figures, the men of the church pulled guns on her, told her not to get out of her car, according to Lamar County school officials.

MORGAN SAID he had gone to the school, accompanied by the sheriff, to inform its officials of the state regulation on reporting attendance.

"When I told them they said 'All right, you've told us,'" Morgan said.

"This is a real dangerous situation. I wouldn't advise you to go out there," he added.

The Holy Bible Church School probably is the prime example in the state of regulations for private schools.

There aren't many children involved and those who are are primarily members of one family.

But the school exists -- and it exists in Georgia.

A source advised that on [redacted] National Grand Council of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan met at Atlanta, Georgia, to discuss consolidation of the Klan's unity of effort and activities to establish a National Fund, and a National Secretary, and to design a new flag. The meeting was attended by representatives of the Federation of the Ku Klux Klan, Alabama; Association of the Arkansas Klans, Arkansas; Florida Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Southern Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Association of Georgia Klans, Georgia; Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, North Carolina; Association of South Carolina Klans, South Carolina; Dixie Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Tennessee; and Kyksos Klan, Texas.

This source advised that at a consolidation meeting at Atlanta, Georgia, [redacted] which the North Carolina and Texas Klans were not represented, it was resolved and passed that their names be changed to National Ku Klux Klan.

[redacted] source advised in March, 1964, that several meetings of Klan groups were held during the period 1960 - 1963, in an effort to unite the Klan groups under a single leadership.

The organization was granted a charter in DeKalb County, Georgia, November 1, 1963, under the name National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order."

[redacted] source advised in December, 1963, that the organization had issued a statement of its progress which indicated the organization to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

[redacted] source advised on May 5, 1970, that the organization has its headquarters in Tucker, Georgia, and the day-to-day operations are under the direction of JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard. This source also stated that the NKKKK continued to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

RALLY AND CROSS BURNING
THOMASTON, GEORGIA, OCTOBER 24, 1970
NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.
RACIAL MATTERS - KLAN

b6

b7D

On October 23, 1970, a source advised that a rally and cross burning was scheduled to be held at the Hillside Villa, U. S. Highway 19, approximately three miles south of Thomaston, Upson County, Georgia. The purpose of the rally was to stimulate interest in the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Incorporated, and to attempt to recruit enough members to activate a klavern in Upson County, Georgia.

On October 26, 1970, the source further advised that the rally was held as scheduled, beginning about 8:00 PM, and it is believed that the attendance was small due to the fact that it began to rain in the afternoon and was raining most of the time the rally was going on. There appeared to be from 75 to 100 people at the rally, which was far below the expected attendance.

The source advised that the main speaker was [redacted] who is believed to be the [redacted] of the Jacksonville, Florida klavern of the Florida Klans.

[redacted] After the rally [redacted] returned to [redacted]

Jacksonville the same night, traveling by automobile. [redacted] spoke for about one hour and his comments were critical of the present bussing of school children. He gave a recruiting-type talk slanted toward attracting members to the klan.

[redacted] of the Lamar County Klavern, National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Incorporated, Barnesville, Georgia, spoke for about fifteen minutes, giving a talk endorsing private schools and advising care should be taken in voting so that people would be elected to office who would be moderate in handling school integration matters.

[redacted] of Georgia, National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Incorporated, Thomaston, Georgia, spoke for about fifteen minutes. [redacted] remarks were slanted toward recruiting members. He pointed out that the local people needed the klan to give voice to the white man's rights in the school integration matters, wherein extensive bussing of students worked a hardship on the children and parents involved. He declared that the klan intends to work within the framework of the law and is a non-violent organization.

The source further stated that JAMES R. "Jimmy" VENABLE, Imperial Wizard, National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Incorporated, Tucker, Georgia, failed to appear at the rally and the reason for his absence was unknown.

The source advised that the speakers utilized a flatbed trailer for a speaking platform, which was provided by [redacted] a klansman living [redacted] between Thomaston and Barnesville, Georgia. [redacted] was not at the meeting. Applications for membership were given to about thirteen members who expressed an interest in joining the klan.

RALLY AND CROSS BURNING,
THOMASTON, GEORGIA,

The source also advised that he observed an Upson County sheriff's patrol car at the scene of the rally. There was no violence, no incidents, and no arrests as a result of the rally.

On October 26, 1970, Sheriff TILLMAN BRAY, Upson County, Thomaston, Georgia, advised that he accompanied [redacted] to the klan rally on the evening of October 24, 1970, and observed that it was without incident, and participants appeared to be peaceable. There were about 20 automobiles at the rally, and the crowd was estimated to be between 60 and 70 people. It was raining during most of the meeting which lasted about two hours. Speakers dwelled upon the school integration matter, wherein extensive bussing of students caused inconvenience to students and parents, and they appeared to slant their remarks toward persuading those present to believe that klan membership would aid the situation by uniting parents.

Sheriff BRAY advised that he observed no violations of the law, and no incidents came to his attention. No arrests were made. He feels that there will be no large number of persons willing to join the klan in Upson County.

Synopsis:

National headquarters of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (NKKKK) continues to be located in Tucker, Ga., but NKKKK Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, only active national officer, is allowing a Korean male to live in and operate a karate studio in the headquarters. NKKKK Grand Dragon for the State of Georgia has moved state headquarters from Lamar Co. to Upson Co. and has declared the formerly very active Lamar Co. Klavern (Barnesville, Ga.) to be inactive and no longer officially representing the NKKKK. Officers, membership figures and activities of Georgia Klaverns set forth. A Klan organization in Maryland voted to affiliate with the NKKKK, but Imperial Wizard VENABLE did not follow up by sending membership cards and other Klan paraphernalia. An attempt to start an NKKKK unit in Charlotte, N. C., in 1970, was given up when it was learned that the NKKKK was a "one-man show" (VENABLE) with no national organization.

- P* -

DETAILS:

A characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., hereafter referred to as the NKKKK, is included in the Appendix of this report.

I. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

A. Headquarters

Headquarters of the NKKKK is located in the

AT 157-60

CARL ~~GARMON~~ Building, 4107 Lawrenceville Highway, Tucker, Georgia, but no meetings are ever held there anymore except for the Sunday morning breakfasts after the annual cross-burning and rally at Stone Mountain, Georgia, on the Labor Day Weekend. NKKKK Imperial Wizard, JAMES R. VENABLE, who owns the headquarters space, is allowing a Korean man named [] to live in and operate a karate studio in the NKKKK headquarters space.

([] 2/19/71)

B. Charter Information

At a meeting of the NKKKK held in Tucker, Georgia, on September 6, 1964, Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, announced that he had incorporated the NKKKK and that it was being operated as a separate Klan, the same as the other Klans having membership in the national group.

([] 9/16/64)

The NKKKK was granted a charter in DeKalb County, Georgia, on November 1, 1963, under the name of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc.

There has been no change in the charter status of the NKKKK.

([] 2/19/71)

C. Objectives;

The NKKKK was chartered as a patriotic secret, social and benevolent order. In December, 1963, the NKKKK issued a statement of its program which indicated the organization to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic and anti-foreign born.

([] 12/63)

The objectives of the NKKKK have not changed since the organization was formed. Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, however, does not advocate any form of violence in the settlement of racial issues.

([] 2/19/71)

D. National Offices

The NKKKK has only one active national officer, Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, an Atlanta attorney. [redacted] might still be considered the head of the [redacted] of the NKKKK, but there is no [redacted] and continued illness have made her inactive as far as Klan matters are concerned.

[redacted] 2/19/71)

E. National Organization Activities

The only real national organization activity of the NKKKK is the annual rally and cross burning held on Labor Day Weekend each year on the property of JAMES R. VENABLE in Stone Mountain, Georgia.

The only other activity which could be considered national organization character, are the travels of JAMES R. VENABLE around the country to make speeches on behalf of the NKKKK.

[redacted] 2/19/71)

The affiliation of Klan organizations with the NKKKK has little significance because, on the basis of past experience, the affiliated Klans have been essentially independent organizations. Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE is always losing money on his personal Klan activities such as his appearance in Maryland on April 25-26, 1970. VENABLE, as the only active officer of the NKKKK, does not issue any publications and very little literature, therefore, has little influence on any Klan organization which ostensibly affiliates with the NKKKK.

[redacted] 8/12/70)

At a meeting with Klansmen in Baltimore, Maryland, on April 26, 1970, following a cross burning and rally on the previous day, JAMES R. VENABLE told the Maryland Klansmen that his Klan was the second largest, next to the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, hereafter referred to as UKA.

AT 157-60

A characterization of the UKA appears in the Appendix of this report.

Imperial Wizard VENABLE stated that the NKKKK has about forty-four separate Klans in the United States and the heads of these groups meet once a year at his place in Georgia and he hoped that someday they would all be joined in one organization. VENABLE criticized [redacted] of the UKA and stated that [redacted] is a maverick who is out for the money and therefore the UKA is the only Klan organization that will not go along with the others because [redacted] believes that he is the strong man in the Klan movement. VENABLE told the Maryland Klansmen that he had come to Baltimore by air at his own expense to see what the Maryland Klansmen had to offer. A vote was taken by the Maryland Klansmen and it was unanimous that they join the NKKKK. VENABLE told the Maryland Klansmen that he would send them a schedule of annual dues for membership and other necessary Klan material.

[redacted] 4/28/70)

At a meeting of this same group of Maryland Klansmen held in Finksburg, Maryland, on July 19, 1970, the leader of the group told those present that although they still considered themselves affiliated with the NKKKK, they would run their own program. He stated that Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE had not come through with any membership cards for other Klan paraphernalia. He further stated that the Maryland Klansmen would continue to use the dues card which he had issued to them.

[redacted] 7/27/70)

F. Finances

The NKKKK has no bank account. It is doubtful whether any of the so-called affiliates of the NKKKK forward any dues money to Imperial Wizard VENABLE. VENABLE constantly loses money by traveling about the country to make speeches on behalf of the NKKKK.

[redacted] 2/19/71)

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

G. Publications and Propaganda

The NKKKK issues no publications and the only propaganda or literature issued by the NKKKK is the material put out by VENABLE, at his own expense, to advertise the national rally at Stone Mountain, Georgia, on the Labor Day Weekend.

Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, however, is in the process of writing what he believes to be a definitive book on the history of the Klan in the United States. VENABLE hopes to have this book published sometime in 1971.

[REDACTED] 2/19/71)

II. ACTIVITIES IN GEORGIA

A. Organizational Activities

Members of the Lamar County Klavern of the NKKKK, Barnesville, Georgia, went to Griffin, Georgia, on May 24, 1970, and helped Klansmen in Spalding County, to set up a new NKKKK Klavern in Griffin.

[REDACTED] 6/5/70)

Members of the Hart County Klavern of the NKKKK, Hartwell, Georgia, staged a Klan rally and cross burning in Toccoa, Georgia, in order to establish a new Klavern in Toccoa. It was stated that nineteen people had filled out applications for membership in the NKKKK at this rally.

[REDACTED] 10/9 and 12/70)

There have been no indications that a new NKKKK Klavern was actually established in Toccoa, Georgia.

[REDACTED] 2/18/71)

Some people of Thomaston, Georgia, were upset over the bussing of children to achieve racial balance in the schools, contacted Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE [REDACTED] of the NKKKK, and as a result, the Upson County Klavern of the NKKKK was formed in

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

AT 157-60

October, 1970, and will meet in Thomaston, Georgia.

[redacted] 10/9/70)

Some representatives of the NKKKK contacted [redacted] of an independent Klan organization in Jonesboro, Georgia, known as the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (Clayton County). They wanted [redacted] to have his organization join the NKKKK.

[redacted] 7/6/70)

A characterization of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (Clayton County) appears in the Appendix of this report.

Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, in November, 1970, also invited [redacted] to affiliate his Klan with the NKKKK.

[redacted] 12/4/70)

No move has yet been made by the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (Clayton County) to affiliate with the NKKKK.

[redacted] 2/12/71)

B. State Level Activities

State headquarters of the NKKKK was moved from Barnesville, Georgia, to Thomaston, Georgia, in January, 1971, because friction had developed between the [redacted] of the Lamar County Klavern and the State Grand Dragon. The Grand Dragon thereupon transferred the state headquarters to the Upson County Klavern in Thomaston, Georgia.

[redacted] 1/27/71)

In August, 1970, the NKKKK Grand Dragon appointed [redacted] of the Spalding County Klavern to be the [redacted] for the State of Georgia. [redacted]

AT 157-60

was also to be a recruiter for the NKKKK. [redacted]
[redacted] are the only two state level officers of the NKKKK, and although there have been a number of so-called state meetings of the NKKKK, at which all Klaverns were to have representatives, only a few members have attended these meetings and little or nothing was accomplished at the meetings.

[redacted] 2/18/71)

C. Cross Burnings and Rallies

The NKKKK held a rally and cross burning in Zebulon, Georgia, on July 25, 1970. The rally, sponsored by the Pike County Klavern, was actually a political rally in support of J. B. STONER, National Chairman of the National States Rights Party, who was campaigning for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Georgia. STONER made his usual attack on the U. S. Government, Negroes and Jews. At one point in the rally, armed Klansmen challenged newsmen at the scene, but were commanded by someone on the podium to let the newsmen alone. The rally was otherwise peaceful.

[redacted] 7/27/70)

A characterization of the National States Rights Party, hereafter referred to as the NSRP, appears in the Appendix of this report.

One Klansman stated that he saw so many guns at this NKKKK rally on July 25, 1970, that it looked as though they were ready for war.

[redacted] 8/12/70)

On August 9, 1970, NKKKK members staged a motorcade from Griffin to Thomaston, Georgia, in honor of J. B. STONER of the NSRP. In Thomaston, the Klan held a public rally and STONER made a speech in which he made his usual derogatory remarks about Jews, Negroes and the U. S. Government. The motorcade had been led by a motorcycle gang known as the "Drifters" who wear Confederate flags on the backs of their jackets. STONER stated that there were 400 of these "Drifters" in the State of Georgia, and that they could be recruited into the Klan.

AT 157-60

[redacted] 8/13/70)

On September 5, 1970, Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE staged his annual NKKKK rally on his property in Stone Mountain, Georgia. About 500 people from many states attended. A thirty-foot cross was burned and about seventy-five robed Klanspeople circled the cross. A group wearing NSRP gave a speech criticizing Negroes, Jews and the U. S. Government and telling the Klansmen why he should be Governor of the State of Georgia. JAMES R. VENABLE gave his usual speech warning everyone about Jews, Negroes, Communists and Catholics. Although a number of the Klansmen wore guns, the rally and cross burning was peacevul.

[redacted] 9/14/70)
9/11/70)
9/10/70)

As noted earlier in this report, NKKKK held a rally and cross burning in Toccoa, Georgia, on October 3, 1970.

The Upson County Klavern of the NKKKK staged a public rally on October 24, 1970, near Thomaston, Georgia. The rally was peaceful and only about seventy-five to one hundred people attended because of rain. About thirteen people filled out applications for membership in the NKKKK. The Georgia Grand Dragon gave a speech in which he stated that the NKKKK intended to work within the framework of the law and was a non-violent organization. Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE was to have been a speaker, but he failed to appear at the rally.

[redacted] 10/26/70)

AT 157-60

D. Klaverns

Tucker Klavern, Tucker, Georgia

The Tucker Klavern is inactive, and its meeting place, which is also the national headquarters of the NKKKK, is now being used as a karate studio.

[REDACTED] 2/19/71)

Lamar County Klavern, Barnesville, Georgia

Georgia [REDACTED] has declared the Barnesville Klavern of the NKKKK to be inactive and no longer officially representing the NKKKK. It is believed that the Klavern may try to affiliate with another Klan organization or attempt to set itself up as an independent Klan organization.

Last officers elected in Lamar County Klavern were:

Exalted Cyclops - [REDACTED]
Klaliff - [REDACTED]
Klokard - [REDACTED]
Kladd - [REDACTED]
Klarogo - [REDACTED]

Membership in this Klavern continually dwindled as some members went to other Klaverns such as Pike County and Upson County, and some members quit Klan activities entirely.

[REDACTED]

are about all who are left in this Klavern which had been one of the most active NKKKK units. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] to look for a place where they could move their families.

[REDACTED] 3/18/70 -
2/18/71)

AT 157-60

Pike County Klavern, Zebulon, Georgia

The Pike County Klavern of the NKKKK has about seven active members out of a total membership of about ten.

The officers are as follows:

Exalted Cyclops - [redacted]
Klokard - [redacted]
Kludd - [redacted]
Kladd - [redacted]
Klaliff - [redacted]
Klexter - [redacted]

3/18/70)

The Pike County Klavern does not seem to be growing and the same old members attend their occasional meetings.

As of January 27, 1971, the Klavern was dormant as they were trying to find a new meeting place and then they intended to elect new officers.

[redacted] 12/22/70,
and 1/27/71)

Spalding County Klavern, Griffin, Georgia

The only known officer of the Spalding County Klavern of the NKKKK is [redacted]
[redacted] has indicated that he has around twelve members for the Klavern.

[redacted] 6/7/70)

As of October 24, 1970, [redacted] stated they still had no place to hold meetings and every time they tried to rent a place they would be turned down when the owner became aware that Klan unit wanted to rent his premises.

[redacted] 10/26/70)

As of January 27, 1971, [redacted] was still in the process of [redacted] where the Spalding County Klavern could also hold their meetings. The Klavern was meeting only enough to keep the unit alive and only routine business was being transacted.

AT 157-60

[REDACTED] 1/27/71)

Upson County Klavern, Thomaston, Georgia

The Upson County Klavern of the NKKKK was set up on November 7, 1970, at Thomaston, Georgia, and at a meeting held the next day, the following officers were elected:

Exalted Cyclops - [REDACTED]
Klaliff - [REDACTED]
Klokard - [REDACTED]
Kludd - [REDACTED]
Klarogo - [REDACTED]
Klexter - [REDACTED]

The Klavern at this time had around eight members.

[REDACTED] 11/11/70)

On November 22, 1970, this Klavern inducted nine new Klansmen.

[REDACTED] 11/27/70)

About half the members of the Pike County Klavern of the NKKKK and a few of the Lamar County Klavern members are now attending meetings of the Upson County Klavern, which appears to be thriving. Because so many of these Klansmen were attending these meetings wearing guns, the Klavern has passed the rule that everyone must check his weapon before being seated for a meeting.

[REDACTED] 1/27/71)

Hart County Klavern, Hartwell, Georgia

AT 157-60

The Hart County Klavern of the NKKKK is supposed to have about forty members, according to an estimate by JAMES R. VENABLE, but it is believed that VENABLE was exaggerating. VENABLE could have been including all past members of the Klavern who still reside in the area and could be reactivated if the Klavern made such an effort. VENABLE did not state how many active members the Klavern had. The only known officer of the Klavern is [REDACTED] [REDACTED] of Hartwell, Georgia.

[REDACTED] 3/18/70)

On December 17, 1970, [REDACTED] was interviewed by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. [REDACTED] stated that he did not condone acts of violence and would report any contemplated acts of violence to the police. He stated that he did not know of any person he had been previously associated with in the Hartwell Klan group who believed in violence. He stated that he believed in racial segregation, but would work to achieve it through legal means. [REDACTED] stated that there are many people in Hart County who sympathize with the Klan's beliefs, but there has been no open activity on the part of these people. [REDACTED] stated that at election time, he and some of the Klan members with whom he was formerly associated, would meet and discuss the candidate they wish to support in the elections, but he stated that this is just about all of the Klan activity in Hart County.

NORTH CAROLINA:

I. ORGANIZATION

No information has been received that at any time during 1970 was there any unit of National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina.

II. MISCELLANEOUS ORGANIZING EFFORTS

In October, 1970, [] said that he had recently

[] who is known to have been a member of various Klan organizations at Charlotte for at least the past five years [] had stated that recently (understood to be in either September or October, 1970) [] had gone to Stone Mountain, Georgia, and had talked to a man whose name was not learned by []. According to [] he was interested in joining some Klan organization headed by this man.

[] said that [] had mentioned this to some of the other members of the United Klans of America, Incorporated, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (UKA), at Charlotte, with which [] was affiliated, but that none of them had shown any interest, and very little attention had been paid to the comments of [] along this line by any of them.

[] had been visited in Charlotte, North Carolina, in November, 1970, by a very fat man, name unknown, who was stated by [] to be connected with the "Georgia Klan" group [] had been talking with.

In January, 1971, [] that in late December, 1970, and early January, 1971, [] had been in contact with a few former members of Klan organizations at Charlotte, trying to form a unit of this same group, which [] referred to as the "Georgia Klan", headed by "Lawyer VENABLE." [] described [] as an individual who cannot be happy unless he is connected with some kind of Klan organization; and said that since the United Klans of America unit at Charlotte had dwindled away in late 1970, [] is "trying to get this other outfit going."

In late January, 1971, [redacted] had said that he was giving up efforts to form in Charlotte a unit of this group, which he has named as National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, headed by "Lawyer VENABLE" of Georgia. [redacted] had said he has learned this is just a "one-man show" with no national organization, and he was no longer interested in it. [redacted] said he is confident no one else will try to follow up with this organization.

In November, 1970, [redacted] had expressed an interest in what he called the "National Klan" of Georgia. In late January, 1971, [redacted] had done a little talking about this group in the Fall of 1970, but he had no information or reason to believe that anything was being done at the present to form such a group at Charlotte.

A confidential source advised in June, 1967, that Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (Clayton County, Georgia) (KKKK) was formed by the former members of Clayton Number 52 unit, United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (UKA), when that unit was expelled from the UKA.

[redacted] confidential source advised on July 25, 1967, that following their expulsion from Clayton Number 52, UKA, the former members decided to form a new Klan organization to be known as Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. [redacted] produced a charter which he claimed was a charter for Knights of the Ku Klux Klan founded in 1915. [redacted] at Stone Mountain, Georgia. It was decided by the members to adopt that charter and to insert the date July 4, 1967, as the date of reactivation of the charter.

According to the [redacted] the purpose of the KKKK (Clayton County) is the maintenance of white supremacy.

[redacted] source advised on September 19, 1968, that the organization is composed of only one unit. That unit is known as Jonesboro Number 261. It meets at 193-195 Highway 54, Jonesboro, Georgia, which address is also the National and State Headquarters of KKKK (Clayton County).

On May 7, 1970, [redacted] source advised the organization continues to be composed of one unit, known as Jonesboro Number 261 and continues to maintain its headquarters at 193-195 Highway 54, Jonesboro, Georgia.

On November 26, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in the November 26, 1957, issue of the "Greenville Piedmont," a newspaper of Greenville, South Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party, to be known as the United White Party." According to the article, the party was formed at a recently held meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, at which many klansmen were represented. The UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals."

The July, 1958, issue of "The Thunderbolt," self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party" (NSRP), reported that rank-and-file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party," with national offices at Post Office Box 261, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

In November, 1958, a source advised that the NSRP is composed of past members of klan-type organizations and notorious anti-Semites.

The following editions of "The Thunderbolt" advised of the indicated changes of address:

Issue	New Address
June, 1960	Post Office Box 783 Birmingham, Alabama
July, 1965	Post Office Box 184 Augusta, Georgia
April, 1967	Post Office Box 6263 Savannah, Georgia

On August 4, 1965, a source advised that Edward R. Fields, the Information Director of the NSRP and Editor of "The Thunderbolt," is the individual who actually controls the NSRP.

Issue Number 126, dated June, 1970, of "The Thunderbolt" lists Dr. Edward R. Fields as the National Director of the NSRP as well as Editor of "The Thunderbolt."

"The Thunderbolt" continues to publish articles attacking Negroes and persons of the Jewish faith.

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, show that this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Incorporated.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in United States Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Incorporated. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute, and the United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy and segregation of the races.

[redacted] source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Incorporated, merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. (The organization is directed by [redacted] and is the dominant Klan group in the South, with units in several southern states.)

[redacted] source advised that at a meeting in Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, the United States Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, merged with the United Klans of America, Incorporated (UKA), Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

[redacted] source advised on May 7, 1970, that the UKA is currently an active organization with klaverns in several states. This source said that [redacted]

[redacted] of this organization and was elected to this position on September 3, 1967, at a "National Klonvocation" in Tuscaloosa, Alabama. Source stated that during April, 1966, the National Office was moved from Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, to [redacted] Northport, Alabama, which space he had converted into a room.

A source advised that on May 22, 1960, the National Grand Council of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan met at Atlanta, Georgia, to discuss consolidation of the Klan's unity of effort and activities to establish a National Fund, and a National Secretary, and to design a new flag. The meeting was attended by representatives of the Federation of the Ku Klux Klan, Alabama; Association of the Arkansas Klans, Arkansas; Florida Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Southern Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Association of Georgia Klans, Georgia; Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, North Carolina; Association of South Carolina Klans, South Carolina; Dixie Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Tennessee; and Kyksos Klan, Texas.

This source advised that at a consolidation meeting at Atlanta, Georgia, September 2 - 5, 1960, at which the North Carolina and Texas Klans were not represented, it was resolved and passed that their names be changed to National Ku Klux Klan.

[redacted] source advised in March, 1964, that several meetings of Klan groups were held during the period 1960 - 1963, in an effort to unite the Klan groups under a single leadership.

The organization was granted a charter in DeKalb County, Georgia, November 1, 1963, under the name National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order."

[redacted] source advised in December, 1963, that the organization had issued a statement of its progress which indicated the organization to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

[redacted] source advised on May 14, 1971, that the organization has its headquarters in Tucker, Georgia, and the day-to-day operations are under the direction of JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard. This source also stated that the NKKKK continued to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Venable spoke before a group of about twenty Klansmen at the Spanish Trace Inn in Athens, Texas, on the evening of June 25, 1971. Venable gave a history of the NKKKK. He said it was a fraternal order and they had the same basic constitution as the UKA. Venable said that the Klans around the United States have never been as divided as they are at the present time. He said [redacted] of UKA was only interested in getting money and was not a true Klansman. Venable also said the NKKKK was a peaceful organization which was against militancy. He stated that he had come to Texas to tell the people about the work of the NKKKK.

The meeting went along peacefully with no demonstrations or violence. Venable [redacted] returned to Dallas, Texas, and left on a Saturday morning air flight to return to Atlanta, Georgia.

[redacted]

THE SOURCE STATED THAT ONLY ONE INFLAMMATORY SPEECH WAS MADE AND THIS WAS BY AN OHIO KLANSMAN IN A WHITE ROBE WHO OPENED AND CLOSED THE RALLY WITH PRAYER. THIS KLANSMAN, HOWEVER, ADVOCATED THE BURNING AND BOMBING OF SCHOOL BUSES SUCH AS THEY DID IN MICHIGAN RECENTLY RATHER THAN ALLOW THE BUSING OF SCHOOL CHILDREN. THE SOURCE STATED, HOWEVER, THAT UXXXXX IMPERIAL WIZARD JAMES P. VENABLE SEEMED TO MODERATE THESE STATEMENTS BY IMMEDIATELY GETTING UP AND STATING THAT ALL OF US HAVE OUR OWN IDEAS AND WE SEEMED TO IMPLY THAT WHAT THE OHIO KLANSMAN SAID WAS NOT THE OFFICIAL KLAN POLICY. VENABLE SEEMED TO STRESS THE SEGRATION OF RACES THROUGH LEGAL MEANS.

THE SOURCE STATED THAT THE RALLY WAS PEACEFUL AND THERE WERE NO INCIDENTS OR ARRESTS.

ANNUAL RALLY OF THE NATIONAL KNIGHTS
OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC., (NKKKK),
STONE MOUNTAIN, GEORGIA
SEPTEMBER 8, 1971
EXTREMIST MATTER - KLAN

A source has advised that the annual rally of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., (NKKKK), was held on the property of Imperial Wizard James B. Venable at Stone Mountain, Georgia.

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (NKKKK), was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order." The NKKKK, a consolidation of various Klans in southern States, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic and anti-foreign born.

The source stated that the rally was the largest rally of the NKKKK rallies he has seen in many years and estimated the crowd at six to seven hundred. The source stated that about one hundred robed Klansmen circled the three crosses which were burned, a twenty-foot and two ten-foot crosses.

b6
b7C
b7D

Imperial Wizard Venable acted as the master of ceremonies. [redacted] an Ohio Klansman, opened and closed the rally with prayers, but, according to the source, made the most inflammatory speech of the evening. The source stated that [redacted] said that school buses should be burned or dynamited, rather than have school children bused to achieve racial balance in the schools. The source stated that [redacted] mentioned the recent dynamiting of school buses in Michigan.

The source stated that when [redacted] finished, Imperial Wizard Venable got up and stated that everyone had his own opinion on the busing situation and this rally was a place for free speech. The source stated that Venable seemed to imply that the statements by [] were not official Klan policy and Venable spoke about achieving racial segregation through legal means.

The source stated that a Klansman named [] of a South Carolina Klan group said that his Klan was not fighting any particular group, but all who were trying to destroy our country, whether they were Negroes, Jews or anybody else.

The source stated that [] of a recently formed Klan in South Carolina, stated that his was the fastest growing Klan in the country. [] stated that white Christians were the majority in this country and if they banded together they could repeal any law ever passed. The source stated that busing and integration of the races could be stopped lawfully and peacefully.

b6
b7C
b7D

The source stated that a Klansman from New Jersey spoke about the violence in their schools because of integration of the races and of busing children twenty miles when schools were close by. He stated that he would go to jail rather than allow his child to be bused when there was a school nearby.

[] of an independent Klan in Georgia, stated that he was born a Klansman and would die a Klansman. The source stated that [] described the Klan as a God-fearing, loyal American organization, second to none.

The source stated that other speakers spoke against Communism, Red China and the mongrelization of the races.

The source stated that the rally was peaceful and there were no incidents or arrests.

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised as follows on February 14, 1972:

A meeting was held in Bridgeton, New Jersey, on Saturday evening February 12, 1972, under auspices of National Klan Unit Number 201, Bridgeton, which unit is presently in an inactive status. The purpose of the meeting was to re-organize the National Klan into a local active organization. The meeting was attended by 43 to 45 adults.

Representatives from New York and Pennsylvania were present but none known to be from the State of Delaware. A man and wife [redacted] represented New York State. They were from a city about 80 miles north of New York City at which a state university is located. The majority of those in attendance were from the Bridgeton area and represented the National Klan, United Klans of America, Incorporated, and Citizens Organization for Defense Emergency, a local Bridgeton white citizens group.

Also in attendance was Imperial Wizard James R. Venable and [redacted] from Stone Mountain, Georgia. They flew by commercial air from Georgia to National Airport, Washington, D.C. and were then picked up and driven by private automobile to Bridgeton.

The meeting was opened by [redacted] a rank and file member of National Klan Unit Number 201. He thanked everyone for being present saying, "We are all concerned citizens and know what we are here for". He then spent some time on the nature of the literature available at the front of the hall and asked that everyone pick up some of the literature before leaving. While [] was talking about the literature, [] was passing out National Klan literature and membership application. N.S.

[] OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION then introduced [] saying that he, [] would introduce the speaker for the evening. [] remarked that he is trying to re-organize and has spent a lot of time on it. He said it has cost him so much money out of his own pocket that his wife has had to go back to work part time. He then asked everyone present to fill out a National Klan application for membership before leaving that evening.

[] stated that he was going to introduce the author of the book, "Choose Your Side" which he held up for all to see. He said that the man has spent a small fortune in the research of the book and also a small fortune on keeping the Klan alive. [] remarked that he expects everyone who was a concerned citizen to purchase a copy of the book stating that it is the greatest American history book written. He said that the book is available for $15.00 a copy but was immediately interrupted by James Venable who said that any right wing person or organization could purchase the book for $10.00 a copy. N.S.

[] then introduced James R. Venable as the author of the book. Venable remarked that he would comment on his book as he went along with his talk. He said that the Klan was the greatest organization ever created. According to Venable, it has the requirements that no other organization has; these being white Christians and native born. He referred to the Klan as a secret organization also saying that secrecy is strength. He spoke in length on the Klan's literature, formation and history of the Klan. He frequently made reference to sections of his book dealing with the literature and history of the Klan. He touched very little on re-organizing the Klan other than to tell everyone to fill out the National Klan application which had been passed out to them.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

In this regard Venable commented that just because you fill out an application there is no guarantee that you will be accepted for membership in the National Klan. He said that the only way they were going to build an organization was to approach their friends and get them to join. At the conclusion of Venable's talk, [] called on [] for any comments he may like to make and the only thing he had to say was that he agrees with everything Venable had to say. This then concluded the meeting.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.

Character:

EXTREMIST MATTERS - KLAN

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 8-30-88 BY SP8 [REDACTED]

Synopsis:

National headquarters of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (NKKKK) continues to be located in Tucker, Georgia. Officers, membership figures and activities of Georgia klaverns set forth. Klan organization in Maryland held rally at which JAMES R. VENABLE spoke.

- P* -

DETAILS:

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., (NKKKK) was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social, benevolent order." The NKKKK, a consolidation of various Klans in southern States, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

I. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTUREA. Headquarters

Headquarters of the NKKKK is located in the Carl Garmon Building, 4107 Lawrenceville Highway, Tucker, Georgia, but no meetings are ever held there.

[REDACTED] 2/14/72)

B. Charter Information

At a meeting of the NKKKK held in Tucker, Georgia, on September 6, 1964, Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, announced that he had incorporated the NKKKK and that it was being operated as a separate Klan, the same as the other Klans having membership in the national group.

([] 9/16/64)

The NKKKK was granted a charter in DeKalb County, Georgia, on November 1, 1963, under the name of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc.

There has been no change in the charter status of the NKKKK.

([] 2/19/71)

C. Objectives

The NKKKK was chartered as a patriotic, secret, social and benevolent order. In December, 1963, the NKKKK issued a statement of its program which indicated the organization to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic and anti-foreign born.

([] 12/63)

The objectives of the NKKKK have not changed since the organization was formed. Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, however, does not advocate any form of violence in the settlement of racial issues.

([] 2/19/71)

D. National Officers

The NKKKK has only one active national officer, Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, an Atlanta attorney, [] might still be considered the head of the [] of the NKKKK, but there is no [] and continued illness have made her inactive as far as Klan matters are concerned.

([] 2/14/72)

E. National Organization Activities

The only real national organization activity of the NKKKK is the annual rally and cross burning held on Labor Day weekend each year on the property of JAMES R. VENABLE in Stone Mountain, Georgia. The only other activity which could be considered national organization character are the travels of JAMES R. VENABLE around the country to make speeches on behalf of the NKKKK.

[redacted] 2/15/72)

The affiliation of Klan organizations with the NKKKK has little significance because on the basis of past experience the affiliated Klans have been essentially independent organizations. Imperial Wizard is always losing money on his personal Klan activities. VENABLE, as the only active officer of the NKKKK, does not issue any publications and very little literature, therefore, has little influence on any Klan organization which ostensibly affiliates with the NKKKK.

[redacted] 2/14/72)

F. Publications and Propaganda

The NKKKK issues no publications and the only propaganda or literature issued by the NKKKK is the material put out by VENABLE at his own expense to advertise the national rally at Stone Mountain, Georgia, on the Labor Day weekend.

G. Cross Burnings and Rallies in Georgia

A Klan rally was held in Thomaston, Georgia, on August 15, 1971. This rally was sponsored by the Upson County Klavern of the NKKKK. About 200 persons present for the rally heard NKKKK Georgia [redacted]

[redacted] denounce school busing and call for more people to join the Klan.

[redacted] 8/17/71)

AT 157-60

On September 4, 1971, the annual rally of the NKKKK was held at Stone Mountain, Georgia. A crowd estimated at between 600 and 700 people attended the rally. Approximately 100 robed Klansmen circled three flaming crosses. JAMES R. VENABLE acted as Master of Ceremonies. The principal speaker was [redacted] an Ohio Klansman, who called for the burning and dynamiting of school buses to stop forced integration. Other speakers at the rally called for an end to school busing.

[redacted] 9/8/71)

On September 25, 1971, an NKKKK rally was held in Toccoa, Georgia. Approximately 125 people attended the rally held on a private farm and heard speakers [redacted] of the NKKKK in Georgia, and [redacted] of the Hart County Klavern, call for an end to school busing and forced integration.

[redacted] 9/28/71)

A rally sponsored by the NKKKK between Barnesville and Zebulon, Georgia, on September 25, 1971, was postponed because electrical power could not be brought to the site of the rally. The rally was re-scheduled twice and finally was postponed indefinitely in November.

[redacted] 9/28/71)

H. Klaverns MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

Lamar County Klavern, Barnesville, Georgia

Georgia [redacted] has declared the Barnesville Klavern of the NKKKK to be inactive and no longer officially representing the NKKKK. This klavern has not met in over a year.

Last officers selected in Lamar County Klavern were:

Exalted Cyclops [redacted]

Klaliff [redacted]

Klokard [redacted]

Kladd - [redacted]

Klarogo [redacted]

The [redacted] who had been the driving force in this klavern, have sold their farm and reportedly moved to the Jacksonville, Florida area.

[redacted] 5/27/71-
9/14/71)

Pike County Klavern, Zebulon, Georgia

Due to the Pike County poor leadership and non-payment of dues by members of klavern, [redacted] took the charter of this unit.

[redacted] 6/14/71)

Spalding County Klavern, Griffin, Georgia

The only known officer of this klavern is [redacted]

[redacted] has shown displeasure at the poor leadership shown by [redacted]. This unit is practically dormant now and seldom holds meetings. [redacted] is reportedly building a meeting place for this klavern on his property in Griffin, Georgia, and expects more members to come to meetings when this building is completed.

[redacted] 5/7/71-
6/14/71)

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

Upson County Klavern, Thomaston, Georgia

The officers of this klavern are as follows:

Exalted Cyclops
Klaliff
Klokard
Kludd
Klarogo
Klexter

This klavern is the only really active klavern of the NKKKK in Georgia. This group meets at the residence [redacted]. During the past several months many of the older members of the klavern have dropped out and new members have taken their places. Imperial Wizard VENABLE has instructed [redacted] to get rid of all the trouble-makers in this klavern.

Hart County Klavern, Hartwell, Georgia

Although this unit sponsored a rally in Toccoa, Georgia, on September 25, 1971, there has been little other activity by this unit. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was the prime source in having the rally at Toccoa and although he claimed new members were signed up at the rally, there has been no activity since that time.

[REDACTED] 2/16/72)

II. TRAVELS BY JAMES R. VENABLE

On August 28, 1971, JAMES R. VENABLE spoke at a rally sponsored by the Maryland Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, held in Gamber, Maryland. VENABLE belittled the Government and called for greater efforts to build up the Klan.

[REDACTED] 8/31/71)

On June 25, 1971, JAMES R. VENABLE gave a speech to about 20 Klansmen in Athens, Texas. VENABLE's speech on this occasion called for more people to join the NKKKK.

A source of the Atlanta Office advised as follows on April 17, 1972:

A rally sponsored by the Upson County Klavern of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) was held on Saturday evening, April 15, 1972, on Highway 19 North and Shepherd Road, Thomaston, Georgia.

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

Approximately 200 people attended the rally and heard Georgia NKKKK [redacted] and Upson County Klavern [redacted] talk on local politics, school bussing, and narcotics in the schools. Both speakers denounced forced school bussing and stated they would support only those candidates opposed to it. There was very little talk of race by both these speakers.

Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, JAMES K. VENABLE, failed to appear and make a speech as had been expected.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
EXTREMIST MATTERS - KLAN

A source of the Atlanta Office advised on June 5, 1972, that the motorcade sponsored by the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (NKKKK) took place as scheduled on Sunday, June 4, 1972. Participants in the motorcade gathered at 1:30 P.M. at the Nancy Hart Memorial Park on Highway 29, south of Hartwell, Georgia. Approximately 40 cars began the journey, which went through the towns of Elberton, Georgia; Royston, Georgia; Carnesville, Georgia; Toccoa, Georgia; Lavonia, Georgia; and Anderson, South Carolina. The motorcade was led by James R. Venable, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, and [redacted] of the Hart County Klavern. Many occupants of the automobiles participating in the motorcade wore Klan robes and some of the spectators along the route of travel were observed wearing Klan robes. At one point in the motorcade there were approximately 75 cars participating. The number of cars participating at any one time varied, however, as cars joined and left the motorcade as it passed through various towns.

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., (NKKKK) was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order." The NKKKK, a consolidation of various Klans in southern States, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

The motorcade ended at 5:30 P.M. at Hartwell, Georgia, where it had originated. It covered approximately 175 miles from start to finish. There were no speeches before or after the motorcade. The stated purposes of this demonstration were:

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

On June 2, 1972, Chief of Police Julian Jones, Anderson Police Department; Sergeant [redacted] South Carolina Highway Patrol; and Sheriff J. B. Lindsey, Anderson County Sheriff's Office, all of Anderson, South Carolina, were advised of the proposed motorcade by the captioned group through Anderson County on Sunday, June 4, 1972.

On June 5, 1972, [redacted] Anderson, South Carolina, Police Department, advised officers of the Anderson Police Department met the motorcade of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) at the city limits of Anderson, South Carolina, at about 2:20 p.m., on June 4, 1972, and escorted the motorcade through the city of Anderson, South Carolina, without incident. [redacted] advised that he noted that practically all of the 24 cars in the motorcade had Georgia license on them.

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Incorporated, was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order." The NKKKK, a consolidation of the various Klans in southern States, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

On June 6, 1972, a source of the Columbia Office, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the motorcade of the NKKKK proceeded through Anderson,

COUNTY KLAVERN, NATIONAL
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX
KLAN AT PIKE COUNTY, GEORGIA
JUNE 24, 1972
EXTREMIST MATTERS - KLAN

- - - - -

A source of the Atlanta Office advised as follows
on June 27, 1972:

A rally and cross burning sponsored by the Upson
County Klavern, National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) was held on Saturday evening, June 24, 1972, at the [redacted] [redacted] on the Pike County line outside of Zebulon, Georgia.
Approximately 125 people attended the rally, some 20 of them wearing Klan robes and hoods.

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., (NKKKK) was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order." The NKKKK, a consolidation of various Klans in southern States, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.
